

Outpatient Attending Position at NewYork-Presbyterian/Weill Cornell Medical Center

Weill Cornell Medicine's Department of Psychiatry in conjunction with NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital is seeking to recruit a Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist for an outpatient attending position at NewYork-Presbyterian/Weill Cornell Medical Center on Manhattan's Upper East Side. Academically-oriented physicians with a strong foundation in the assessment and treatment of psychiatric disorders in children and adolescents are encouraged to apply. Responsibilities include working with a multidisciplinary team to provide clinical care to patients and teaching and supervision of medical students and residents.

Minimum Requirements: Board certified or eligible in Psychiatry and child and adolescent psychiatry. Completion of a ACGME-accredited fellowship in child and adolescent psychiatry. Possess or be eligible for a NYS license.

Founded in 1898, and affiliated with what is now NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital (NYPH) since 1927, Weill Cornell Medical College (WCMC) is among the top-ranked clinical and medical research centers in the country. Weill Cornell Psychiatry is one of the largest, most prestigious departments in the country, with a long, distinguished history of providing outstanding leadership in clinical care, training, and research in all areas of psychiatric disorders. Our programs at Payne Whitney Manhattan and NewYork-Presbyterian-Hospital's Westchester Division are renowned for the range and quality of our inpatient and outpatient specialty programs and general psychiatric services.

Weill Cornell Medicine is an equal opportunity, affirmative action educator and employer.
